

Bureau Speaker Warns of Too Much Government Control, "Give Away"

Absenteeism High In Hondo Now

Approximately 300 students were absent from schools of the Hondo Independent School District Monday, according to J. G. Barry, superintendent, and conditions had not improved Wednesday from a quick check of the three schools here in Hondo.

Barry believes that closing the school is not the solution as the cold-flu situation may get better any day now.

Absenteeism makes a hardship on the average daily attendance record of the school, for it is this figure which determines how many teachers the state will furnish salaries. But Barry says the state department has said that it will not hold epidemics against the school. He said, however, that he had hoped the school might be able to increase the number of teachers for next year and that this drop in attendance would most certainly hurt those chances.

Six Wrecks Recently; No Personal Injuries

City Policeman Orby Swartzell has investigated four car wrecks during the past two weeks within the Hondo city limits and the sheriff's department has checked on two during the past week. Fortunately, there were no personal injuries involved in the accidents.

On October 16, Mrs. Lucille Gravens Heirman, driving a 1953 Ford, and Juan Garcia, in a '47 Chevrolet, collided at the intersection of Ave. M and the New Fountain Road. Estimated damages to the Heirman vehicle were $75 and to the Garcia car, $5.

Three days later, Otto Elder Havins of Hondo Air Base and Mrs. Heather P. Korpics, who resides in the "village", ran together at the intersection of 14th Street and Ave. Y. An estimated $500 damages was done to the Havins '55 Chevrolet and $500 to the Korpics '57 Buick.

Mrs. Margaret Fielder Bali, driving a '54 Buick, and Carmon P. Martinez, in a '51 Ford, collided at the corner of 20th St. and Ave. Q, the morning of Oct. 24. Estimated damages were $75 to each of the two vehicles.

The fourth accident investigated by Swartzell was a one car affair in which Erceal V. Doty turned off US Highway 90 onto Ave. T, hit loose gravel and ran into Nesters neon sign. There was no damage to the sign, but the '54 Oldsmobile was dented.

Sheriff's Department

An unusual accident occurred Friday, Oct. 25, when two cars, both heading west on Highway 90, collided. Melvin Lee Morris of Cotulla, driving a '55 Ford, was charged with passing without sufficient clearance, as a result of hitting a '49 Chevrolet driven by Walter J. Saathoff. Damages totaled about $275.

Late Saturday afternoon Mrs. Adline Pauline Conley, in a '56 Chevrolet, and Roberta Ann Fasel, driving a '55 Dodge, collided at the corner of Ave. L and 27th St. Mrs. Conley was going south on 27th, Miss Fasel was headed east on L. Damages totaled $500 according to the sheriff's department.

VFW Turkey Shoot Sunday

Sharpshooters will have a chance to check out their guns this weekend before hunting season gets underway. The event is the annual VFW turkey shoot being held Sunday, Nov. 3 at a range built behind Carter's Drive In, Highway 90 east.

Shooting will be going on from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m., with Thanksgiving turkeys the principal prize to winning gunsmen. The charge is 25 cents per shot, and all revenues go for various VFW charity projects.

High School PTA To Sponsor Discussion

"What Young People and Their Parents Expect of Each Other" will be the topic of discussion at the Hondo High School P. T. A. meeting on Nov. 4th. Representatives from the four high school classes, parents, and teachers will participate.

Other program numbers will feature students from the Junior Class in a series of songs and stunts.

The meeting will be held in the High School Cafeteria at 8:00 p.m. Refreshments and a social hour will follow the business meeting. Parents, teachers, and other interested adults are urged to be present.

J. H. West, vice-president of the Texas Farm Bureau, was featured speaker at the county convention of the Medina County Farm Bureau meeting in Hondo at the armory building Saturday. He spoke of the advantages and necessity of farmers being organized and issued a warning against too much government control of agriculture. He stated there is a definite trend in this country to look to the government for security and urged the group to think on these things before sanctioning the many so called "give away" programs.

A barbecue dinner was served to more than 500 people at the meeting. The Rev. Harold S. Goodenough, pastor of First Methodist Church, gave the invocation. John McAnelly and the Hondo FFA Chapter assisted in serving.

Calvin Hardt, president of the organization, presided at the meeting.

State Field Representative J. D. Jordan presented Past President.

Bomba was first vice-president of the Hondo Lions Club, and Jean Ulbrich will automatically advance to this position. Bomba has been employed at Windrow Drug Store as a pharmacist.

Hardie Nance of Utopia will serve as a relief pharmacist at Windrows until a permanent man can be located. Mrs. Gladys Windrow is also working in the prescription department.

Directors chosen to serve this year are: Nick Riff, south Hondo; Glenn Gooding, north Hondo; Marvin Haass, Biry; A. R. Freeman, Natalia; Lewis Boehle, Quibi; Herbert Wurzbach, Rio Medina; and Marvin Koenig, LaCoste. Directors whose terms do not expire this year are D. E. Hunter, Devine; Calvin Hardt, Yancey; Richard Saathoff, D'Hanis; Olin Karm, Castroville; Floyd Neuman, Black Creek; and Earl Balzen, Upper Quibi.

Directors met during the day and elected new officers of the organization headed by Calvin Hardt as president again this year. Others chosen were: Lewis Boehle, vice-president; Floyd Neuman, second vice-president; and Bonner Carl, secretary and treasurer.

Delegates picked to attend the state convention in Dallas the week of Nov. 17 were: Hardt, Carl, Riff, Gooding, Freeman and Howard, Richard Saathoff and Alvin Wiemers were selected as alternates.

An attendance prize was given during the day. The names of Robert Riff, F. H. Hollmig and A. E. Driscoll were drawn before Milton Balzen, who was present, was given $25.

During the business session 15 resolutions pertaining to the welfare of farm bureau members were approved.

City Councilman Nester, 77 Dies In Hondo, October 24

B&PW Again Sponsoring Christmas Cheer; Distribution Manner Changes

The Business and Professional Women's Club, Inc. of Hondo will again sponsor the Empty Stocking Fund, and hope that those who have given so generously will again help us to distribute Christmas to those less fortunate.

Miss Mary Ruth Cameron is again this year serving as chairman of the Empty Stocking Committee of the Hondo B&PW Club, and she says the organization is changing the procedure this year.

Her statement concerning the collection of gifts follows:

"There will be a great change in the way of administering Christmas for the needy this year. Heretofore the Club has acted as a clearing agency, and has given out numbers of certain families to individuals, clubs and various organizations to have them prepare a basket for this certain family. This year, the club will accept gifts of cash, nuts, candy, or food, but all of the baskets will be prepared in a central place, and will all be alike. We hope only to give each family a Christmas dinner, and each child a toy, but we do want them to have that much.

"In the past, some of our largest families came up with smallest baskets while the smaller families came up with four or five big baskets. We want only to distribute it more evenly, and of course, once a family is given to some club or individual we cannot touch the basket that comes in, but if we do not give out individual families we may place it where it is needed most. Please help us, and come by to see what we have, and what we have NOT. You are welcome to visit us at any time to see where your help goes. Headquarters are at old Jail Building.

"Some folks have refused to help us in the past because we did not give them the name of a family. Our thinking of that can best be cleared up by explaining it. We give out numbers instead of names so that all of the baskets will be brought to a central place. Mama and Papa, if there are both, are sent a letter telling them that Christmas has been prepared for them, and that they may call for it at a certain time, which they do. In so doing they may have Christmas for their children just as you or I do, when they please. That saves them in the eyes of their children as the ones who provide Christmas for them. Put yourself in their place — Can you imagine what it would be like not to be able to provide Christmas for your little ones? We help only those who cannot help themselves, and we try to help them to keep their self respect. We are not Lady Bountiful, and anyone who would care to come on the day that these people pick up their baskets is welcome to do so.

"We are not accepting used clothing unless it is wrapped as a gift with the size clearly marked on the outside. Our reason for this is the fact that we do not have any place to keep it, and secondly, much used clothing reaches us without zippers or buttons — if these folks could buy zippers and buttons, they could buy clothes. We do appreciate everything, but Christmas is a time for folks, even the less fortunate, to have a little cheer. Would you consider it cheer to receive a used piece of clothing without zippers or buttons?

"If you care to make any donations mentioned above you may call me, Mary Ruth Cameron, HA 6-2632, or put your donation in any of the bottles around town.

"Make your Christmas a really happy one by helping someone else to have a happy one."

HAB Decision November 1?

Air Force officials in Washington are believed to be now discussing the re-evaluation of Hondo Air Base, along the lines previously mentioned. Their decision is supposed to be forthcoming Friday, Nov. 1, if they reach one.

If not, it may be another two weeks before anything definite is known about the future of Hondo Air Base, according to general manager Walter Gunstream.

BY JERRY JUNE BERGER

Mr. and Mrs. FRANK TATE have received word that their son-in-law, TOM BERTSCH, now of Longview, Wash., won second place in a national short story writing contest sponsored by Writer's Digest. His prize is an all-expense paid trip to either Mexico or Cuba and of course the TATE'S are hoping they will be able to stop by Hondo for a visit.

One of the judges of the story writing event was TV star STEVE ALLEN.

BERTSCH, whose wife is the former PATSY TATE, was employed at Hondo Air Base after his graduation from college, and then after spending a short time fulfilling army reserve obligations, he received a discharge and they moved to the cold country.

Seco Philosopher Wonders

If Russian Farmers Are As Happy Over Sputnik As Their Bosses Are

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher reviews the satellite situation once more, with a different slant, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

You may think I'm in a rut, writing about the Russian satellite for the third week in a row, and I may be, although if I am I got there on my own without the help of the Russians and anyway I don't mind, being in a rut is a lot safer than being on most highways I know about, but I have been thinking some more and have come to the conclusion the reason the Russians were in a hurry to get that satellite up into space was to take the Russian farmers' minds off their share of the earth.

Now I don't know anything about the Russian farmers personally, but I have an idea the average farmer over there, working the land for the government and being told how many hours a day he has to work and how much of his crop he can keep, had just as soon believe the earth is flat and own some of it, than to work for the state and conquer space.

Khrushchev may chortle when that satellite goes hurtling around the globe, but I imagine a Russian farmer, looking up in the twilight from his job of milking a government cow, would enjoy the sight of Sputnik more if the cream went to him instead of Moscow.

Understand, I'm in favor of the United States getting on a little faster with its guided missile program, and I have an idea it will now that Washington has heard from the folks at home, but I'd like to point out that science is not the complete answer. The man who thought up the idea of a system that allows me to own a piece of land out here and live on it like I please, with nobody able to take it away from me as long as I pay the taxes, well, he was a pretty smart man, but he wasn't a scientist.

Science makes freedom more fun, but science without freedom is like a penitentiary with air-conditioning — it's still a penitentiary.

I wouldn't swap my farm for a dozen satellites, but I have an idea there are a good many Russian farmers who'd swap all the Sputniks the Communists can launch for one little piece of land they could call their own. But they needn't be looking to me. This Johnson grass farm out here on the Seco is not for sale or trade.

Yours faithfully,

BALANCE OF POWER!

Pause for Reflection

This year, says a report, the technical schools and colleges of Red Russia will have graduated more than 130,000 scientists and engineers — while in free America, only some 70,000 will have graduated.

This is an alarming situation in the age of the atom, and should give American college youth pause for reflection.

The defense of our country and the continued research and productivity of its industry require an adequate supply and optimum employment of scientific and engineering personnel. Every effort should be made to encourage the maintenance of a continuous and increasing supply of technological graduates from our colleges and universities, to meet the needs of essential industry as well as those of government working in its proper field.

Make Sure You Are Not The Victim

SUICIDE SEASON APPROACHING

Fall is in full swing. The air is filled with falling leaves and flying footballs. Mom is digging out the heavy blankets and Dad is busy setting up heaters.

During all this hub-bub precipitated by the crisp air descending down on the Lone Star State a great many Texans take time out to litter up the living room with pieces of torn rags, smelly oil and cleaning rods.

The reason being that hunting season is only two weeks off and it's time to get the ol' "30-06" out of the closet or off the mantle and start cleaning it so as to be ready on the first day to get that big buck you know is just waiting for you.

Just how many Americans and Texans are going to blow their heads off with an unloaded rifle is a matter of conjecture, but it is a hard statistical fact that the death rate from firearms jumps from an average of about 150 deaths per month to over 250 in October.

In November, when hunting starts in earnest, and normally sane men start blasting away at one another on deer leases or contriving intricate methods of suicide such as climbing over barbed-wire fences with their rifles off safety, the figure climbs to 340 deaths more or less.

In Texas 169 persons died from firearm accidents last year. It is only reasonable to assume that half of these were attributable to hunting of one kind or another.

However, death from firearms is not the only way to die during hunting season. A good many hunters slip and fall over precipices while gazing off into the distance instead of watching their steps on unsure ground.

Some get killed before they get to the deer lease in their frantic effort to get there fast combined with a few warming drinks on a chilly pre-dawn morning drive.

Common sense, starting with cleaning the rifle until you bring the deer meat home all wrapped up in foil, will save a lot of heartbreaks in a good many Texas homes this hunting season. Why not try some?

REMEMBER WHEN...

10 YEARS AGO

The long anticipated National Guard unit designated for Hondo moved closer to reality Wednesday as Charles S. Lee was named Captain in command of the Anti-Tank Company of the 141st Infantry Regiment of the 36th Division. Lee, a local photographer, served in the Air Corps during the recent war, and was stationed at Hondo part of the time.

Ground was broken this week on the southeast corner of Avenue K and 16th Streets across from the Methodist church, for the new home of the Anvil Herald.

Trying out at the recent St. Louis Cardinal camp held in Hondo last week were J. E. and Herb Boon of Hondo and Horace Langford of D'Hanis. The Cards seemed particularly interested in these boys.

20 YEARS AGO

A sneak-thief robbed Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Schweers of a suitcase of their best clothes early Friday evening. Mr. Schweers, in preparing for a motor trip the following morning, had strapped the bag on his car parked in front of his house and in a brief interval, during which he was in the house, before driving the car into the garage for the night the bag and clothes were taken.

The second grade of the Hondo school reported the following: Marydelle Highsmith and Dickie Fly visited the park in San Antonio Sunday. Luella Crisp went on a fishing trip. Sonny Harlee went hunting.

Mesdames Alice Bortreaver, Mary Cook, Frank Graff and Francis Carle attended a show-er in Devine Sunday in honor of Miss Annie Marie Ehlinger, a bride of this week.

30 YEARS AGO

DEVINE — Busby Bros., who got the contract for the 50,000 gallon concrete reservoir, for the city water works, have already begun shipping in materials by the carload. The steel tank and 125 foot tower is being built in Chicago, to be shipped here in a few days, ready to be put up. The City Commission says it will be only a few days before the contract for laying the water mains will be let, and it will all be pushed to completion.

Magnolia No. 1 Keller in Medina County was brought in a small gas well about 2,000,000 feet with a rock pressure of 465 pounds at 1,026 feet. Southern Gas Co.'s No. 4 Nixon will drill in about Monday and Wither-spoon-Southern No. 5 Nixon will drill in about Sunday.

40 YEARS AGO

Many a hog of medium size has been killed this week. The dry cold spell furnished the right kind of temperature to make sausage, to salt in the hams, bacon and bones. The main reason of killing hogs so early was, besides the favorable cold spell, the lack of corn and the high price of lard.

CLIFF — Messrs. Alois and Nick Haby, John Schuehle and John Naegelin stopped over here one night on their way to the San Antonio market with a bunch of cattle.

The Hondo, Texas, colored military boys left October 30, 1917. After enjoying a merry banquet and also a pleasant social given in their Honor Monday night by friends and relatives, they boarded the morning train with merry hearts. They were also made to feel glad for the many nice gifts from their white friends. We, the parents of the boys, do heartily thank the many friends, both white and colored, for their kindness shown to them as they stepped out on a cold world to help to hold up the flag for our country. — Frank Pierce, Sr.

50 YEARS AGO

The local banks have, of course, felt the money stringency affecting the country at the present time and have taken such precautions as are dictated by prudence and conservative banking. They are both in a perfectly solvent condition and have plenty of money for ordinary circumstances and now that money is getting more plentiful in the East and cotton factories are beginning to buy again, our bankers are sanguine that the crisis is past and business will soon take on its normal condition.

It is reported that under the leadership of a prominent Republican, the last of Coxey's army was seen to alight at D'Hanis Monday night from some sand cars. For further information ask Mr. Boog of that place.

The electric light plant shut down permanently Saturday night and oil lamps are again in demand.

By L. A. Wilke
Ducks and geese are here. The hunting season opens one-half hour before sunrise on Friday, November 1. Duck season ends Jan. 14; goose season Dec. 31. All shooting must end one-half hour after sunset, daily.

This is the real beginning of fall, football notwithstanding. When those honkers pass over in formation, we know winter is just around the corner. It won't be long until the frost is on the pumpkin.

If you are a novice at duck hunting there are a few fundamentals you should know. First, you must get your hunting license, which costs $3.15. Next, get your Federal duck stamp, which costs $2, and attach the stamp to the license. If caught without these you are out of luck.

Still another law is just as important. You must have your shotgun, not larger than 10 gauge, plugged to hold not more than three shots. And don't shoot from a motor boat. That's against the law.

With these rules complied with you may kill five ducks and six geese a day. You can have 10 ducks but only six geese, in your possession at one time. You also can kill 10 coot and eight Wilson's one day's bag.

If you are doubtful about any provision of the shooting regulations, consult your local game warden. He'll give you all the help you need.

Despite rains and changing weather there still is a large dove population in the South Zone of Texas. Warden reports from most of the South Texas counties, indicate the doves are fat and fully feathered now. Dove hunting season in South Texas does not close until Nov. 17, except in the valley counties where there was a three-day white wing season. In those counties the season will close Nov. 14.

Year 'round Fishing
Rains of the past week have muddied most of the Texas streams. Top-water fishing has been badly affected. With deep-running plugs some big bass have been taken from the lower depths.

There'll be rapid turnovers in the lakes now with the advent of cool weather. After settling there should be some excellent top-water fishing again. Meantime sandies and crappie are being taken in great numbers in most of the lakes.

Texas are lucky that they can fish throughout the year. In fact some of the best crappie and sand bass fishing is during the months of December and January. There was a big natural spawn of both this year.

Speaking of spawn, the New Hampshire Game department right now is engaged in artificially producing trout. Through manipulation of artificial lights the biologists have been able to take 47,000 eggs from 369 female trout three months in advance of the natural spawning season. These baby fish then will be used for stock of one trout stream in the state.

True Reporting
How well do you know the camp operator where you fish? I know all kinds. There's the fellow who always tells you fishing is great, people have been catching limit strings of all kinds, come on out, boy, don't miss a golden opportunity.

A while back, Outdoor Editor George Kellam of the Fort Worth Star Telegram got suspicious of all this noise. He checked with fishermen on the camp operator's report.

One couple, who reportedly snagged 50 crappie and three nice blacks, told Kellam they fished two and a half hours and caught zero. Another pair of anglers, given credit for 30 crappie, said they were just sightseeing and didn't even douse a minnow. Still another twosome who, according to the camp operator, caught limit strings, said they fished 11 hours and didn't get a bite.

There's no law against this tale-telling, but it should come under the head of false advertising, and any camp operator who is guilty of it should be avoided.

A Few Warnings
A Word of warning. Be sure when you take your outboard motor off the boat now, that it is properly drained. Water left in the motor might freeze and crack the cylinder.

Also remember, it is getting dark earlier each evening and will continue to do so until mid-December. This means on your return to camp you should start early enough to get in before dark.

Shooting Preserves
More hunters each year are taking advantage of shooting preserves to get their quail and pheasants. Texas now has several of these preserves. They are stocked with pen raised birds. The landowners permit shooting for fees. Some of them charge by the day, others by the birds killed. In either event the total cost of a hunt with the bag limit filled might be less on one of these places than you would expect.

Game wardens and in most instances the sporting goods stores know where there is one of these preserves close to you. Check in to it.

News Notes
Texas Open Championship Field Trials will be held at Camp Maxey, near Paris, from Dec. 2 through Dec. 10. This is the outstanding bird dog event of the south. Entries are from all over the United States. Information can be had from Mrs. H. B. Pittman, Box 454, Tyler, who is secretary. Carl Duffield of Abilene is president.

Texas Game Wardens soon will be wearing shoulder patches. insignia will be black on yellow, with the Game and Fish Commission emblem and "Game Warden" printed thereon. Fish and wild-life biologists also will wear shoulder patches for identification purposes.

You who like to fish at Galveston will be pleased to note that the T-Head of the Pleasure Pier is open for free fishing Mondays through Fridays of every week until March 1. Saturday and Sunday fishing is 50 cents per angler. Bring your own bait, however, as the concession stands are closed.

Services Oct. 13
For Mrs. J. Haby
Funeral services were held at Horger Chapel on Oct. 13 for Mrs. Joe (Mary L.) Haby, who died on Oct. 11, 1957 at the age of 91.

She had been living at the Herma Sons Home for the Aged at Confort. The Rev. O. B. Kahlich of D'Hanis conducted the services at the chapel and at the graveside in D'Hanis.

The daughter of Frank A. and Kathleen Zerr Lutz, she was born in D'Hanis March 7, 1866. Mrs. Haby is survived by two sisters-in-law, Mrs. August Lutz and Mrs. Joe Lutz Sr., both of D'Hanis.

Good Grasses Crowd Out Weed

A "keep out" sign won't scare undesirable weeds from your pasture. A carefully-planned mowing or chemical control program is the only efficient answer to the pasture weed problem.

Farmers can get a head start on weeds with proper establishment of adapted plants. Good stands of desirable grasses can usually "outgrow" pasture weeds under optimum conditions, says Extension Pasture Specialist E. M. Trew, especially when properly fertilized. Good grazing also limits pasture weed population.

Trew advises mowing when the worst weeds start blooming since they are more easily damaged at this stage. Mow all weeds before seed is produced, and remember that some require several operations. Sometimes fall-blooming weeds call for both early summer and fall mowing.

Avoid mowing when desirable grass is scarce or during hot, dry weather if grass stand is not thick enough to shade the soil. CAUTION—many mid and tall native bunch-grasses such as blue stem cannot stand repeated mowings.

Mowing excess growth for hay or silage is like putting money in the bank. Mowing also stimulates new growth on near-mature plants and evens up growth after grazing. It removes old grass growth and allows entrance of volunteer fall clovers. Mow high and as early as is practical. A rotary-type mower is generally faster and cheaper.

Chemical control is usually more economical than mowing. Trew says. Spray annual broad-leaved weeds early with 1/2 to 3/4 pound 2, 4-D or M.C.P.A. to the acre. Apply with a low-volume, low-pressure broadcast sprayer in 20 or 30 gallons water per acre. Add about 4 ounces liquid detergent or 1 pound dry for best leaf coverage. Perennials may require slightly higher chemical rates.

Be familiar with herbicide regulations before using these chemicals. They will severely damage pasture legumes such as white, hop, Persian, crimson and red clovers, lespedeza, black medic and alfalfa. Broad-leaved crops, such as cotton, tomatoes and sweet clover are susceptible to chemical drift. See your county agent for local recommendations.

Scout Troop 219 Takes Honors At Pearsall Meet

St. John's troop 219 of Hondo took top honors at the district Scoutorama at Pearsall. The scouts put on a signalling demonstration with wigwag and blinker that rated 84 points and a grade of superior. Scouts Al Rath, Steve Jones, Wayne Korbell, Mike Pope and Ricky Sowa participated on the signal team. The troop also marched in the parade under the able direction of Lt. Dick Mollicone, West Pointer in flight training at Hondo Air Base. Lts. Bill Foster and Ed Gammons also in the training program at the base have been very helpful in the troop's scout training. The unit's record was particularly outstanding considering that all of its star scouts were out with the flu. With the excellent help of L. E. Pope and John Kalinowski as assistant scoutmasters, the troop should show much advancement in the new scout year, its 3rd. Both Lt. Mollicone and L.T. Foster are Eagle scouts. At Cotulla this last Saturday, troop 219 participated in the district rifle meet put on by the Border Patrol at its rifle range. Dick Proctor copped individual top honors in the competition. John Coyle, Mrs. Bonita Proctor, and Fay Rath took charge of the troop for the day and enjoyed the submachine gun and carbine demonstration as well as the rifle meet itself. The troop has 3 or 4 vacancies at this time. Boys 11-14 years are eligible and can be accepted only with their dads as active workers in the troop. See L. E. Pope, Assist. Scoutmaster, or Ralph Jones, Scoutmaster, for membership information.

DICK PROCTOR, complete with black eye, was high point man at a Boy Scout rifle meet in Cotulla Saturday, where 43 boys competed. Sharp-shooter Proctor did not get that eye from shooting, but from a football game last Thursday.

Over 117,257 4-H Club members will join with the more than 10,000 members in the National 4-H Achievement Day on November 2. The day belongs to 4,222 local 4-H clubs and 10,093 volunteer adult leaders who assist them with their educational activities. Too, more than 1,000 4-H members are serving as junior leaders.

During the past 50 years, about 18 million young people in the nation have been 4-H members. Former members are numbered among the nation's outstanding leaders in every field of business, industry, the professions, agriculture and homemaking. The 4-H organization, directed by the Agricultural Extension Services of the states and territories, in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is now worldwide in its influence. Since World War II, 4-H or similar organizations have been established in many foreign lands. The International Farm Youth Exchange commenced in 1948 has played a major role in this spread.

Assault Costs $1000

Thomas L. Roche of Bigfoot pleaded guilty in county court Friday to a charge of aggravated assault, and Judge Arthur Rothe set the maximum fine, $1000, for him to pay, plus court costs.

The victim of the assault was Leo Rogers of Devine, who has been brought home from a San Antonio hospital and is in fair condition. Roche beat up Rogers with a baseball bat and then cut him with a broken beer bottle, according to authorities.

Rogers injuries were so great that it required doctors about three hours to fix him up — there were more than 100 stitches made above the man's shoulders.

The ruckus took place in Pauline's Tavern on US Highway 81 in Devine. The Liquor Control Board closed the tavern with a charge of breach of peace occurring on the premises of a beer licensed place. One county official stated Monday that the closing would probably be for a long time, possibly permanently.

ROARING TWENTIES
As I answered the phone the other Saturday morning I heard Roy say, "I'm cleaning out the attic and found something here I want to show you. Come over."

A few minutes later I was standing by an open trunk as Roy modeled, of all things, an old racoon coat.

"Still fits," he said. "Noticed quite a few this fall at the football games, so this week I'm going to be in style again."

With that, we started reminiscing — Rudy Vallee, flippers, and two-piece bathing suits.

"And the 10-minute wait to complete a Long Distance call," Roy joshed.

"Yes, but how about now," I replied, "from coast to coast in as little as 12 seconds after you pick up your phone?"

I reminded him, too, that in 1925 the transcontinental telephone line, which everyone now takes for granted, was only 10 years old.

"And compare the new color telephone in your den with the stand-up type of those days," I went on, "Some improvement, huh?"

I would have bragged on about the many other telephone improvements of the last 30 years, but Roy pulled me up short with that "get hep" saying of other days.

"Oh, you kid," he said.

CLUB PROGRAMS
These days nearly everyone belongs to a club, church group, or some other type of organization. If you do, and you ever have a hand in getting up the program for a meeting, I think you'll find a telephone program booklet helpful.

This booklet lists some 50 films that your group can borrow free. It also tells about available lectures and demonstrations.

Want a speaker for your meeting? It tells how to get one. Or maybe your group would like to make a telephone tour. It's all explained in the booklet.

Ask Mrs. Moebus or Mrs. Thompson at the telephone business office for a copy. It could come in real handy.

FOOTBALL FUN
Another football season is underway. If there are any fans around your house, it's likely that the radio and television sets will be working overtime for the next few months bringing the games into your home. It's the next best thing to having a 50-yard line seat.

Maybe you've never realized it but the telephone company plays an important part in bringing you these football broadcasts, as well as other radio and television programs you enjoy. We handle the transmission of programs from distant places for your enjoyment.

Telephone engineers have worked constantly through the years to improve these facilities. Today we use both cable and microwave networks to transmit these broadcasts.

And, of course, improved transmission means more pleasure from the programs for you.

This is another example of how the telephone company always seeks to bring you improved communications — in radio, television, on a local telephone call across town or a Long Distance call across the nation.

Getting back to football, have you attended any of the Hondo Owls games this season? If not, why don't you plan to be at the next one. Better still, go to all the Owls games this year. You'll enjoy them and the team will appreciate your support.

Save 1-3 On Out Of Town Calls
Whether you're making a business call or just keeping in touch with members of the family in other cities, it's smart to place your Long Distance calls Station-to-Station.

You save money because Station-to-Station rates are about one-third lower than Person-to-Person rates. This means you can make three calls for the price of two.

And here's another Long Distance tip to remember: call by number — it's twice as fast.

Wedding Invitations and Announcements

One of the most important parts of your wedding plans is the invitation or announcement you select to send to your friends. We have handsome papers with an enormous selection of scripts or modern types, or engraving. Prices range from 4.95 to 60.00 per 100. Come by and let us show you our selection before going out of town.

Medina Valley Soil News

For the past few weeks farmers and ranchers have been planting cover crops consisting of peas, oats, and clover. Between showers of rain and the sunny days, many acres of cover crops are now coming up to a good stand. Those who seeded clover with their oats will receive the best results in grazing and soil improvement to their land. Peas and clover help to open the soil for better penetration of moisture. Plant food from the roots of legumes give badly needed nitrogen and organic matter to the soil for future crop growth and production.

An interesting note on conservation practices in the Medina Valley Soil Conservation District is that root plowing is still on the increase. More and more farmers and ranchers are realizing the great increase in production given by rootplowing and seeding. To them this stands for more pounds of beef that can be marketed and more profitable dollars in the pocket.

Ed Moehring has just completed a 5000 yard farm pond that will furnish his stock farm with adequate water for his cattle. When the pond is full it will hold approximately 20 feet of water. This type of farm pond is of great benefit to any farmer or rancher. Cattle that travel less distance to water, walk off less weight. Better distribution of grazing is received when adequate water is available in the right locations.

Personnel of the Soil Conservation Service, assisting the Medina Valley Soil Conservation District, are always ready to assist those who wish to conserve and improve our greatest heritage "SOIL AND WATER".

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Berger,

My pupils and I thoroughly enjoyed the program of the 4-B class on Friday afternoon. We were impressed by the way that the meeting was carried on by the president of the club, Alfred Henderson. The minutes were well read by Margie Mumme. Lynette Wright, as chairman of the program committee did her part well. We enjoyed the reading on Halloween Customs by Stevie Miller; the sayings of Joel Chandler Harris by Eddie Berger, and the movie "The Rabbit and the Tar Baby" presented by Loretta Saathoff and Jane Gilbert.

We hope you can find room in your paper for our letter, so that class 4-B will know that we really enjoyed their story-club program.

Yours sincerely,
Mrs. Sharp's Class

SANTLEBEN TELLS ABOUT "LADRONES"

"Highwaymen in Mexico are called ladrones, or robbers. They usually frequented the frontier, but other parts of the country were often infested by them before they were finally suppressed by the government. Generally they were a select body of men of good appearance, who wore broad-brimmed felt hats elaborately embroidered with silver and gold thread, and dressed in the regular riding costume that, was profusely ornamented with silver buttons in front, on the sleeves, and down the trousers. Their horses were the best that the country afforded, and silver mountings were lavishly displayed on their saddles and bridles.

"When a band of ladrones decided to hold up a stage, after ascertaining that it was conveying a large sum of money or on other occasions, they selected an uninhabited region at a point where it was necessary for the vehicle to ascend a steep hill, and concealed themselves on both sides of the road until it approached. The first intimation of their presence was given by one of the gang, who ordered the driver to stop, when the others showed themselves and the spokesman made known his intentions to the passengers. Pointing to his companions, who silently awaited the result of the conference, he explained that it would be folly to offer resistance, as they were ready to enforce his demands. With the greatest politeness he requested them to pass out their money, and when they complied he placed it all together on the road-side. Force was rarely used in such cases, and I never heard of an instance when the pockets of passengers were searched. The money wanted was in sacks and generally amounted to large sums in silver that could not be concealed.

"When Major Porter's brother was robbed by ladrones on the national stage line near Monterey, in 1868, no resistance was offered; the passengers delivered ten thousand dollars to one man, who was in a short distance of his companions. After securing his treasure he ordered the driver to proceed on his journey.

"I was never molested by ladrones when staging in that country, and only know of one occasion when I believed they intended to hold me up. It happened near Palo Blanco ranch, twenty-five miles northeast of Salinas Victoria, where ten or twelve men were lined up on both sides of the road. I was riding on the outside with my driver and escort when I saw them. The speed of the teams was checked and I called the attention of my passengers inside the stage to the suspicious circumstances. We all recognized them as regular ladrones by their dress, etc., which corresponded with the general description I have given and no time was lost in getting our weapons ready to meet them. The team was in a walk when we passed between them, but evidently, seeing that we were prepared to offer resistance, they were content to extend to us their friendly greetings. My passengers were Daniel Wueste of Eagle Pass, Carlos Sada of Monterey, Pedro Morales, customs-house officer at Piedras Negras, and two Mexican army officers.

"I only know of three stage robberies that occurred in Mexico when I was in the business. One took place within five and another in less than ten miles of Monterey, on the road leading from Saltillo; and the other was forty miles from Monterey, on the Matamores road near Linares. The money thus obtained, when added together, amounted to a large sum, and it was all secured without a drop of blood being shed.

AIRMAN RUDOLF J. GRUN, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Grun of Hondo, has completed the first phase of basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base. He has been reassigned to the 3703d Basic Military Training Squadron, Lackland, where he is undergoing second phase training which prepares graduates for eventual duties of critical importance to the Air Force and the nation.

"Seventeen"—Tribute To 17th Ice Capades

How wonderful to be seventeen!

Jumping out of bed after a dreamless sleep, bouncing wide awake for a quick, bracing shower, slipping into some school togs, downing a hearty breakfast, then swinging jauntily off to school... A refreshing pause for lunch, another hour or two at school, then off to a keen platter party. Dancing to the latest craze, the mad, glad, hectic 'rock and roll'. Dashing home for dinner and more leisurely change into a glamorous sweetheart gown, to take in the big event of the season, the formal prom in the evening. Dancing romantically to the soft, sweet strains of a dreamy waltz, capping a day filled to the brim with joy and gladness.

All this and more is brought to the ice as a delectable treat for ice fans by Producer John H. Harris in "Seventeen," his ultra-modern Salute to the Teenagers, opening October 29 at Bexar County Coliseum for 6 evening performances and 2 matinees.

This youthful, charming number is but one of the ten unusual productions and twenty acts to be seen in this never-to-be-forgotten 17th Edition of Ice Capades. Tickets are available in Hondo at Jack Winkler Buick-Pontiac Co. or you can order by writing to Ice Capades, Bexar County Coliseum and state number of tickets and performance desired. Enclose self-addressed, stamped envelope and check or money order for quick ticket return.

Evening performances will be at 7:30 p.m. and the November 2 and 3 matinees at 2:00 p.m. The final performance will be at 6:00 p.m., November 3, 1957.

Cotulla Crushes Owls

By Georg Gaston

Hondo's hopes of getting a quick lead in the 28-A district picture met a severe blow in the form of defeat at the hands of a stout Cotulla defense and puzzling spread formation, 7-0. The game, played under biting cold weather conditions, had the earmarks of a defensive battle from the gun as both teams were forced to punt six times and bone crushing tackling all night caused a total of 11 fumbles.

The initial scoring play, coming midway in the third period, gave the Cowboys their sixth win and also lifted Cotulla into the league-lead with a 2-0 mark. Pearsall has a 1 and 0 district ledger. The TD happened as QB Billy Jones left-handed the pig-skin into the waiting fingers of End Paul Curtis to complete the 21 yarder. Curtis then added the conversion to sew up the contest as the Owls could not muster a serious threat.

Outstanding defensively in the Hondo Wall were Tackle Gary Schweers and a promising rookie Guard Ronnie Ulbrich, with 13 solo tackles per. They were flanked by fine performances stemming from Junior End Johnny Korbell, 11, and freshman Guard Fred Graff, 9.

On the other side, Billy Potsa-vich led the Hondo Haulers with 53 yards among 17 carries. Close behind was Sidney Mercer with 41 for 14. Fullback Bobby Ward carried twice for 12.

Carrizo Springs Next

This week the Owls travel to Carrizo Springs in an effort to stay in the title picture. The Wild-cats own a 2-5 season record with a 1-1 district slate. Last week they defeated Dilley 13-7 and their other victim was San Felipe 13-0. Among their losses are de-cisions to Pearsall (19-0) and to Devine (13-7). The main Wildcat threat is Halfback Jimmy Allen. He is of the bread-and butter type and also kicks an accurate PAT.

FEDERAL FORCE DENOUNCED

Despite difficulties among themselves, pro-segregation representatives pushed through a hastily enacted integration.

By a vote of 112 to 24, House members criticized President Eisenhower's action at Little Rock. It did not, said the resolution, "reflect constitutional government deriving its powers from the consent of the governed."

Further, it asked the President not to send troops to Texas to enforce "modern sociological concepts" or interfere with "the constitutional right of the State of Texas to provide, operate, and discipline the public schools of Texas."

Difficulty came with Rep. Joe Pool's efforts to push through a demand - to-the-governor-resolution. Pool's proposal would call on Gov. Price Daniel to say at once when he will open the legislature for segregation bills. It was shunted aside for a week.

Many East Texans joined in the postponement move, thus indicating they had faith in the governor's intentions.

MARRIAGE OF MANY

Lobby control proposals are going through the "agonizing reappraisal" stage.

Eight widely varying bills - four in the House, four in Senate, were sent off to subcommittees. Each sub-group is to make a four-way marriage of the proposed bills in the hope of arriving at something that will be acceptable to all.

Some points of difference: whether "controls" should apply only during sessions or year-around, only in Austin or anywhere in state, whether public officials should be exempted, church spokesmen, etc. Each author contends the rival bills have "loopholes."

A new proposal by Sen. Henry B. Gonzalez of San Antonio is that the law should provide for a special enforcement agency. It would be a "disclosure board" to which information on who is lobbying for whom and how much is being spent would be filed.

MUDDY ROAD

Proponents of a statewide water planning bill are having slow going too.

They're having to slog through waters muddied by scores of amendments and objections from various area groups who fear an overall state plan might short-change them.

House members have to struggle with two different bills and 35 proposed amendments. Rep. W. A. Stromman of San Angelo introduced a substitute which cuts out the provision for the state to buy storage space in federal reservoirs. It also would require the water planners to report to the Legislature in 1959 and would not allow the Water Board to have final say on a state plan.

Balloting in next Tuesday's constitutional amendment election may have an effect on legislative efforts. In their vote on the proposed $200,000,000 water bond issue, Texans will indicate just how strong they are on statewide water programs.

Governor Daniel told the Senate committee he would not want to see the whole water planning bill ditched because of the storage buying feature. But he didn't want to "suggest you drop it."

"MURDER CAPITAL" CITED

Crime study and state practice act - the two other items in the governor's special session call - are generating less legislative static.

A House hearing on the crime study bill brought strong pleas for better law enforcement from Houston civic leaders. Houston (109 murders last year) has been called the "murder capital of the world," they said. Worse than Chicago's gangland days. "It's time we face up to some of these things," said a Jaycee spokesman.

Sen. A. M. Aikin has introduced in the Senate the bill to regulate legal practice before state agencies. A similar bill already is in the House mill.

NARY A DIME

Don't expect to collect from the state for damages you suffer from a state employee. Again the State Supreme Court has held the state is not liable.

Even guarantee in the Texas' constitution that your property shall not be damaged or applied to public use without compensation are not sufficient to overturn this principle.

This latest decision denied damages to C. C. Benson whose cotton crop was ruined by drift of weed killer sprayed by an employee of the Dallas County Flood Control District. Similar decision was handed down in 1949.

LOCAL CONTROL URGED

Local control and integration were front and center issues at the state convention of the Texas Association of School Boards in Austin.

Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr. urged the solving of education problems without federal aid and federal control. Integration was discussed mostly off-stage.

Kadets Defeat Comets

CASTROVILLE — The rugged Peacock Kadets won out over the fighting St. Louis Comets 20-7 Saturday night in an Academic League game. The loss sent the Comets reeling into third place in the League standings, behind St. Gerard's and Peacock.

Fumblitis again plagued the Comets as on five occasions the Kadets pounced on Comet Bobbles. The Comets managed their lone touchdown in the second quarter while Peacock scored single touchdowns in each of the second, third, and fourth periods.

The Comets just couldn't seem to get started. The first two times they had the ball they lost possession by fumbling.

After the ball had exchanged hands six times, the Comets opened the scoring for the night. Speedy Carl Mangold intercepted a Kadet pass on the Comet 20 yard line. After Comets moved the ball to the Peacock 9 yard line in 12 plays a 15-yard penalty against the Comets moved the ball back to the Kadet 26. Three plays later and three plays deep in the second quarter, Tailback Royce Groff hit Mangold in the left flat with a screen pass and the latter scampered 23 yards for the touchdown. Arthur Espino added the extra point and the Comets had a 8-0 lead.

Peacock came fighting back to tie it up mid-way in the same period. After recovering the Comet's third fumble on the Comet 45 yard line, the Kadets, behind the brilliant running of Quarterback Jim Orcutt and Fullback Millard Henderson, marched 45 yards for the tying score. Henderson climaxed the drive by plunging over from one yard out. Orcutt booted the extra point to knot the score, 7-7.

Both teams threatened again in the first half but neither could manage to score. St. Louis took the Kadet Kickoff and marched from their own 30 yard line all the way to the Kadet 6 yard line. At that point, a 15 yard penalty took the wind out of the Comet sails putting the ball on the Kadet 21. Two plays later Peacock took over on downs and they rolled all the way down to the Comet 7 yard line before the whistle sounded ending the first half.

As the second half opened, the Kadets wasted little time in grabbing the lead. They quickly ate up 72 yards in 7 plays to score only 4 minutes deep in the third period. Orcutt picked up most of the yardage, as his 33 yard run highlighted the drive. He picked up the touchdown on a quarter-back sneak from the three yard line, and booted the point after. That left the score 14-7 in favor of the Kadets.

Again in the second half, the Comets had trouble trying to get their offensive machine rolling. The first two times they had the ball in the second half they promptly fumbled it away. The second of the fumbles was the more costly. It occurred after Mangold had intercepted his second pass of the night and had run it back 45 yards to the Kadet 31 yard line. After Groff picked up a first down to the 20, he fumbled the ball over to the Kadets.

The very next time St. Louis got control of the ball they threatened again. With Peacock leading 14-7 in the final period the Comets worked the ball down field to the Kadet 13 yard line but the visitors dug in and held for downs. Peacock then marched 87 yards to clinch the triumph. Henderson scampered the final 37 yards around left end for his second score of the game to cap the drive. Orcutt's try for the extra point was wide and minutes later the game ended with Peacock victorious 20-7.

Thursday night, Oct. 31, the Comets will travel to Laredo to play the St. Joseph's Antlers. This will be a non-league contest.
